

Friendship Tree Presented White Plains By Sister City White Plains, New York

A beautiful willow oak tree was given to the City of White Plains, Georgia by the White Plains Beautification Foundation of White Plains, New York as a sign of friendship.

Linda Teetz of Alpharetta, Georgia was on hand to present the tree on behalf of the White Plains Beautification Foundation. Mrs. Teetz is a former vice-president of the Beautification Foundation, which is a non-profit organization that works close in hand with the City Council of White Plains, N.Y., a town of fifty-thousand people. White Plains, N.Y. is the County Seat of Westchester County. Mrs. Teetz gave the tree to the Mayor of White Plains Sammy Veazey. Also on hand was a state representative Mickey Channell and Ricky Easley, who planted the tree. A stone marker will be placed at the base of the tree so the friendship can be remembered for many years to come.
